

GEX Diversity Statement

GEX, Incorporated is committed to creating a workforce that reflects and thrives on the incredible diversity in gender, gender identity or expression, sexual orientation, race, color, religion, disability, and age in the global learning community. We recognize that each person on our staff has an invaluable wealth of personal experiences and perspectives and that our employees are our greatest resource. GEX encourages a culture of inclusion and collaboration in which our entire staff feels confident and empowered to make a difference. We believe that the diversity of our workforce drives our ability to offer innovative and creative solutions to our clients, and we are proud of what we accomplish together.
